

Let the Spirit Dwell in Ev'ry Gospel Home

♩ = 92

by Anne Marie Corey

(unison)

Let the spi - rit dwell in ev'-ry gos-pel home. A bles - sed, ho - ly place where Let — Christ's light shine through ev'-ry gos-pel home where ten - der mer - cies flow; where Let — mus - ic — ring in ev'-ry gos-pel home; the songs of sac - red praise. Let Let — beaut - y — fill each earth - ly — home where fam'-lies kneel to pray. For hum - ble hearts who turn to the Lord grow firm - er in their faith. All those who work to - stor - ies of the Sa - vior a - bound and seeds of faith are sown. For all who seek the voic - es — raise to — God a - bove, sweet tones of lat - ter days. We'll sing of ho - ly God, their Fa - ther, hears their call and bless - es them each day. When fam' - lies kneel to - ge - ther, a - midst op - pos - ing scorn, shall build a sol - id fort - res; a re - fuge from the spir - it whose guid - ing light pro - tects, they'll build a crest of ho - nor with kind - ness and re - pro - phets and priest - hood keys re - stored. We'll sing to soothe and soft - en the con - flicts of dis - ge - ther, they streng - then bonds of love. They learn and grow to - ge - ther and seek to be as storm. It's a bea - con of hope for ev' - ry way - ward soul; a lov - ing gos - pel home. rit.

5

10

16

 spect. It's a well - spring of love for all re - pen - tant souls; a ten - der gos - pel home. cord. Each — mel - o - dy sung brings peace — and — love to ev' - ry gos - pel home.
 one. Bind - ing cords of — love shall streng - then to be - come a might - y gos - pel home.